Highlights

- Key appointments to Larvotto's senior management and exploration teams to support growth at Hillgrove Antimony-Gold Project ('Hillgrove')
- Phillip Fox appointed as Perth-based Group Exploration Manager, brings a wealth of geological expertise
- Scott Duncombe appointed as Exploration Manager of Hillgrove Antimony-Gold Project
- The key senior appointments reflect the progress at our Hillgrove Project and Larvotto's commitment to strengthening its leadership team, driving exploration potential and advancing resource development at Hillgrove

Larvotto Resources Limited (ASX: LRV, Germany: K6X, 'Larvotto' or 'the Company') is pleased to announce the appointment of Phillip Fox as Group Exploration Manager, based at the Company's Perth office and the appointment of Scott Duncombe as Exploration Manager at Larvotto's Hillgrove Antimony-Gold Project in New South Wales.

As Group Exploration Manager, Phil brings over 27 years of global, multi-commodity experience in mineral exploration, resource estimation, and project development. His extensive career spans South America, Eastern Europe and Australia, where he has navigated complex geological settings and challenging jurisdictions. Phil has held key leadership roles including Chief Geologist for Adriatic Metals and Exploration Manager for Medallion Metals, where he oversaw significant resource expansions and greenfield discoveries. Phil's wide-ranging expertise will be invaluable in driving Larvotto's exploration initiatives.

As Exploration Manager for the Company's Hillgrove Project, Scott brings comprehensive gold and critical minerals experience across Australia. With a strong technical background and leadership experience with companies such as WA1 Resources, North Stawell Minerals, and Regis Resources, Scott will be pivotal in leading the Company's aggressive exploration programs in 2025.

Managing Director, Ron Heeks, commented:

"We are delighted to announce the appointment of Phil and Scott, who join Larvotto to strengthen our senior management and exploration teams. As Group Exploration Manager, Phil brings a wealth of global expertise to support the advancement of our Hillgrove Antimony-Gold Project and to provide strategic guidance across Larvotto's broader portfolio, notably our Mt Isa Project. Scott joins us to lead the Hillgrove exploration team, as we scale up activity, with plans for up to five drill rigs operating on-site concurrently during 2025.

Their combined expertise will be instrumental as we progress towards updating our Mineral Resource Estimate as part of the Definitive Feasibility Study and prepare for the commencement of mining operations."
